

Brian Smith, Chairman of Humanitarian Projects

Brian Smith has been appointed as the Chairman of CMI's Humanitarian Projects. Brian will have the support from the entire CMI management team. The Chairman is responsible for choosing the project, projecting a budget, and choosing his/her staff. All of the CMI Management team and the Directors share in the Chairman's responsibility in the annual chosen project. Brian Smith was personally selected in this role by CMI President, Kathleen Hall, because of his outstanding leadership ability, along with his impressive strength of character.